

Bloody police and CPS

Friday, 25 August 2017

"This trial has revealed what was then not obvious, that you are a very, very convincing liar and you enjoy being seen as a victim" - so says Judge Nicholas Loraine-Smith about the ghastly vile fat dyke Beale. Meanwhile Mahad Cassim suffered seven years sentence for crimes that never took place. Rather like David Bryant (Danny Day) and Geoff Long and Ched Evans and Jonathan King and hundreds - not dozens - of other innocent victims of the false allegations industry. Yet it continues - bolstered up by police and CPS conspiring to pervert the course of justice.

How can the CPS seriously say they want more false accusers to make claims for compensation after this case and all the others? Karma will kick in.
