

JK Kim Novak and James Dean - from Anticlone

Sunday, 28 May 2006

KIM NOVAK AND JAMES DEAN

Third song from Anticlone.

Again; same track; different song (dadadadadada); names in title and - I think you'll agree - an interesting lyric about my juvenile idols.

Huge crushes when I was a pre teen on Kim Novak (pictured) and James Dean (you know what he looks like!).

Catchy and fun and another song in the game of Anticlone.

Since everyone else seems intent on cloning.

And always was.
