

Skyfall

Friday, 26 October 2012

Went to Skyfall.

Casino Royale was one of the best Bond films ever; Quantum was not only one of the worst Bonds but one of the worst films ever made, mainly due to the dreadful editing.

Skyfall is excellent. As a movie, not quite as good as Casino but there are some absolutely terrific moments; wonderful locations; stunning effects and Daniel Craig is great.

Fantastic camera work. Good sound. Adele's song is one of the best recent ones and the opening credits are top rate.

Also, so good to see Albert Finney.

I went to The Lounge - the only way to watch films these days with very comfy seats, splendid food and drink.