Rolf Harris innocent

Total rubbish charges; Rolf Harris is totally, absolutely innocent.

"He does not leave court a vindicated man" says the BBC.

Oh yes he does.

Totally absolutely vindicated.

Yes he was convicted of other charges years ago and will certainly be appealing those I suspect. But Presumed Innocent means just that, although the BBC seems to think differently.

Indeed I know more about this, as I had tea with his lawyer yesterday.

I shall be writing more soon.
