

Fabulous exclusive revelations in Music Week...

Wednesday, 15 February 2006

NOT!

You'd think they would at least HINT that Mario Warner has left Warners WSM - a key, vital department - and has been replaced by Nick Stewart, as revealed here days ago but no, not a whisper... perhaps we've got it wrong?

And TIM BOWEN getting that vital Sony/BMG gig?

Simply hinted at.

Do Music Week not want to offend their paymasters?

Since we collect no cash, we are in nobody's pocket.

So what IS in Music Week?

Lots of stuff about how their Awards are far more important than The Brits.

Oh and their DEEP THROAT (dooley's diary) is full of valuable gossip and rumours about.... the introduction to the Funky Gibbon!

Finger on the pulse or what?