Essex Boys appeal lost - for God's sake why?

Thursday, 23 February 2006

Because the jury didn't KNOW the key witness had done a big money deal if they were convicted?
Excuse me, the fact implies that he might not have been reliable.
Surely there should at very least have been a retrial.
British justice totally bemuses me.