

Entertainment USA Theme

Friday, 18 August 2006

Due to demand after Charlie Booker's Screen Wipe on BBC4, here's I'll Slap Your Face, adopted as the theme for my 80's TV Series Entertainment USA which peaked at 9.8 million viewers on BBC2.

I think it expresses the fun and enthusiasm I had and still have for that wonderful country with all its faults.

Since my father was American, half the blood in my veins is Yank.
